TO THE SOLAR IRON WORKS

At Pittsburg, Pa., Explode Yesterday Morning,

Carrying Death and Destruction Into Many Homes—Seventeen of the Inmates of the Works at the Time More or Less Injured —Scenes Never to Be Forgotten Occur

When the Relatives of the Wounded

Arrive at the Scene—Sad Have Accomplished by the Flying Debris—Complete List of the Unfortunate and the Extent of Their Injuries.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 2.—Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning the battery boilers at the Solar Iron Works of Clark &

Co., on Third street, exploded with disastrous effect. The night turn had just been relieved by the day force, when a loud explosion startled the workmen, and that portion of the works in the vicinity of the boilers was filled with a cloud of death-dealing steam. Through a dense mist came shrieks and groans, which notified the employees beyond harm's reach that a frightful calamity had overtaken a portion of their fellow workmen. As soon as the steam settled down a rush was made for the spot where the explosion occurred, when it was ascertained that the mud drum of the boiler had exploded, and the escaping steam had scalded seven men.

Closer investigation showed that of this number fourteen were badly burned and three fatally. The names of the injured were:

FRANK MARTIN, badly scalded about the face and arms; will not live.

JAMES COTTOE, fatally scalded; the top of his head almost severed by a piece of flying iron.

FRANK MURRAY, a boy, terribly burned; injuries fatal.

THOMAS STEIN, a boy, badly scalded.

WILLIAM DANIELS, a boy, scalded and injured by flying debris.

DAVID RICHARDS, a boy, scalded and arm broken.

WILLIAM ORTH, roller, badly

scalded.

FRANK GOOD, a boy, badly out on the head.

FATICK HENDERSON, shears-man, seriously scalded and injured by wood, Joseph Yetze, Patrick Henderson, Thomas Stein and William Dancel.

The others are resting easy and will recover. The Coroner adjourned his investigation till tomorrow.

YOUTHFUL HIGHWAYMAN.

Full Particulars of the Recent Stage Robbery in Texas.

GALVESTON, Oct. 2.—A special to the News from Dallas says: J. B. Kane and John Cormack, citizens of Lampasas, who were passengers on the stage from San Angelo to Abilene, gave the following account of the daring robbery sixteen miles east of Rannels: A smooth-faced boy, about 18 years of age, met and passed the stage. He was riding a gray horse. He carried a Winchester rifle and six-shooter. After the stage had passed him he turned and demanded a halt. The driver whipped up his team, and an exciting race for half a mile ensued before the stage was overhauled by the highwayman, who demanding the mail sacks, at the same time saying he did not care to disturb the passengers, six in number, including a lady. The mail sacks were delivered to him, when he carried them 200 yards out on the prairie and les-suredly appropriated what he wanted.

While this scene was being enacted the stage from Abilene for San Angelo came up with seven male passengers.

Weapons were called for, and a man who claimed to be a ranger, on route to Rannels, loaded his pistol, buckled on his belt and held himself in readiness to repel any attack that might be made on his stage. The robber, however, after satisfying himself, rode off, leaving the mail bags on the prairie. Officers are now in hot pursuit of him.

He is supposed to be the same highwayman who robbed the mail between Cisco and Brownwood a few days ago.

Special Rule Explained.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—A reporter of the Associated Press called upon Commissioner Eaton in regard to the new special rule made by the President today. "Was that rule," asked the reporter, "made on the recommendation of the commission, Mr. Eaton?" "It was." "How long had this subject been under consideration, Mr. Eaton?"

"I cannot answer definitely. I have drafts of a rule on the subject made in

The Announcement of the Failure of Heath & Co.

ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE

In New York City Yesterday

Was Somewhat

Of a Surprise, as the House Was Considered

One of the Most Staunch in the City—

An Attachment Secured Against the Property of the Firm by Giovanni H. Morosini in the Supreme Court Before Judge Donahue—An Engraving Firm Succumbs—

Failures for the Week Throughout the United States and Canada.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The suspension of William Heath & Co. was announced on the Stock Exchange today. Alexander & Green, counsel for Giovanni

H. Morosini, today obtained from Judge Donahue, in the Supreme Court, an attachment against the property of William Heath & Co. Mr. Morosini says, in the affidavit upon which the attachment was granted, that for several years he had had $400,000 in cash on deposit with Heath & Co., subject to his draft, and that the only debt that could properly be made against that amount was for 2,380 shares of the capital stock of the Manhattan Railroad Company, of the value of $19,200, and twenty-five second mortgage bonds of the Metropolitan Elevated Railway Company, of the value of $23,000, which he ordered the firm to purchase for him, making an aggregate of $215,000. He claims the firm is in debt to him $265,- 000 in cash, and that it also holds these stocks and bonds for him. Mr. Moro-sini declared that he called at the office of Heath & Co. yesterday for his money and securities, and received in reply that the company could not deliver them, as the securities had been hypoth-ecated or sold, and the money had been otherwise disposed of. He avers that he never authorized Heath & Co. to make use of his money and securities, and charges that they have assigned and disposed of their property with intent to defraud him and their creditors.
